Columbian

Best of luck to one of the sweetest girls I know
Jeanne,
who has been great fun knowing we've have lots of fun few years and I'll never forget them. Remember for all your in Hance's Class. Thanks for the night of the help in my problems, we've forgot the help in Jeanne, I'll never forget the night of the Junior Prom and thanks for all your help in trying to make it a memorable one for me; it sure has been. You have a winning personality and when stop being the life of the party. there is never a dull moment, don't always have as much fun as you've had this year along with Marty, he's a swell guy, and I suppose I'll follow just to be different. I'm only kidding. Good luck always Jeanne, and don't ever change, because you have one of the nicest personalities of any Junior and we couldn't do without you.
Keep smiling,
Love,
Jonna

FOREWORD

The festal procession came to a halt, their torches flickering in the gloom. The expectant elves assembled around the gnome wearing the most wizen visage. Once again they would hear a Midsummer Night's tale of wonder. "Be still, my fellow sprites and ye shadowy spirits," said he. "Tonight I unfold to you a story of marvels past all knowing. 'Twas in the fall of 1956 that a band of valiant knights and winsome damsels crossed the drawbridge of Columbia Castle and entered the labyrinth of another school year. This is what happened."

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1957, dedicate the 1957 COLUMBIAN to Mrs. Lucy DeNuzzo and Mr. Daniel Corr as a token of our deepest appreciation for the time, effort, and advice they have so gladly given. "Doc" Corr has been with us for three years during which time he has inspired us with his interest and confidence in the class and his untiring guidance in all we have undertaken. We were most fortunate to have Mrs. DeNuzzo as our class adviser during our busy senior year. She has won our gratitude for doing a truly wonderful job.

A black and white cartoon illustration depicting a chaotic scene in a forest. In the upper left, a man wearing a top hat and a dark suit is running away from the viewer, looking back over his shoulder with a worried expression. To his right, a woman in a polka-dot dress is also running, looking down at the ground. In the center, a dog is barking, a cat is meowing, and a rabbit is jumping. A signpost with the word 'WELCOME' is visible on the right. The background shows a forest with trees and a path. The overall style is a classic cartoon with exaggerated expressions and actions.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Class of 1957:

Any success you have had in Columbia High School has resulted basically from your own desire for self improvement, your curiosity for learning, and your industry.

In the future, your efforts should continue to be directed toward your own self-development and the improvement of the community in which you may live. If you do these things, the great investment that has been made in your education will be repaid.

May I wish you each my personal best wishes for your future success and happiness.

HOWARD L. GOFF,
Superintendent.

CLASS OFFICERS

The success and happiness of our senior year has been largely due to the combined effort of our capable class officers and advisers. Their careful organization, encouragement, and cooperation have proved valuable reminders of our own duties. They deserve much credit for their role in the accomplishments and successful record of the Class of 1957.

WILL

THE CLASS OF 1957 bequeaths its many accomplishments and oddities to the future seniors of Columbia High School.

To Mrs. DeNuzzo and Doc Corr goes our deepest appreciation for the excellent guidance we have received from them.

Many thanks to Miss Barrett for making possible the reality of the '57 "Columbian."

To Mr. Lyons goes our sincere gratitude for all the help he offered in the production of our yearbook.

PETER PUDNER leaves his perpetual argument with Mr. Chipp to next year's history class.

CHARLES REED leaves the good time his senior year had to offer to his sister.

MARLIND REEVES leaves the Columbia Bappers Order to Jeanne Patterson.

DAVID ROBERTS leaves his ability to antagonize the teachers to anyone lucky enough.

ALLAN SMITH wills his argumentative ways to Don Kirsch.

FRED SCHEFFLER leaves his love for Mrs. De Nuzzo's southern accent to one of her future typing students.

CAROLYN STOTT and RAY SEQUIN leaves the corridors of Columbia to future steady couples.

To whoever can fill it goes ANN SMITH'S job as mechanical editor of the school newspaper.

EARL SMITH leaves his seat in the dance band to Barry Cutler.

WANDA SMITH leaves her ability to leave her books at home to her brother.

HISTORY

FRESHMAN YEAR

The narrator elf waited patiently for the troops of sprites to quiet themselves and give ear to his tale. A few tardy fairies arrived in a rush of multi-colored wings and settled on harebells and buttercups for this, their annual treat.

"'Twas September, 1953," he began, "when the Class of '57 mounted their chargers and sallied forth to prove themselves true knights. Their hearts fell when they counted the leagues they must travel; so, to raise their spirits, they held a festival, 'The Rosebud Bounce,' not far along the way.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Entering the shadowy forest which comprised the second quarter of their peregrination, the knights-errant and their ladies met two seers, Mr. Corr and Miss Bennett, who offered themselves as guides. This stroke of good fortune presaged nothing but happiness for the rest of the journey as did the election of Bruce Bibbins, president of the band, Locky DeWitt, vice-president; Brenda Aswad, secretary; and Donald Hamilton, treasurer.

Twice that year, at the "Snowflake Serenade" and the "Hayseed Hop," everyone cast off his cares and frolicked for an evening. Brenda Peacock, Pat Hiller, Bruce Bibbins, and Larry Becker were sent to convey messages of continuing fealty to the court of the Snow Ball.

JUNIOR YEAR

At this point one of the younger gnomes, a youth of two hundred, contracted the hiccups from excitement and had to be packed off to bed. In the ensuing bustle many voices were raised, calling for silence. "Continue, continue, O good dryad. We listen"

"In sooth," quoth the narrator, "this tumult doth resemble the last two years of the quest of '57. As Juniors, Jane Merry became president; Jack Kelley, vice-president; Mary K. Dollard, secretary; and Donald Hamilton, treasurer. In December each knight received a bit of wizardry contrived from owl's teeth and butterfly dust, his class ring.

Two of the merriest revels were the "Nick Kick" and the "Boop-Boop-E-Doop." Queen Joyce Haswell and King Paul Jordan reigned over the Junior Prom. The court contained many goodly knights and damsels, Jackie Bauer, Brenda Aswad, Jane Merry, Susan Bowen, Rene Steinberg, Brenda Peacock, Jack Kelley, Jack Teliska, Larry Becker, Bernard Cardella, Bruce Bibbins, and Locky DeWitt.

SENIOR YEAR

The party's rejoicing upon gaining the fourth quarter of their journey was diminished only by the loss of Miss Bennett who, hearing cries for help from the State Education Department, gallantly responded and never returned. Luckily, Mrs. DeNuzzo indicated that she could lead us through the remaining terrain, and our complement of guides was restored. Jane Merry became president this year, Paul Jordan, vice-president; Joyce Haswell, secretary, and Donald Hamilton, treasurer. The latter was lost in a wood, and replaced by Joseph Belser. Bruce Bibbins became president of Student Council; Locky DeWitt headed the Honor Society; Beverly Golding edited the Crossroads Gem; and Judy Spencer became editor of the Columbian.

The trials and triumphs followed one another thick and fast. The Senior Play, Harvey, starring Linda Glander, James Gregory, Sal Papa, and Jean Mobley, was hot on the heels of the Senior Tea. Donna Pratt and Bernard Cardella were crowned Queen and King of the Snow Ball. Brenda Peacock, Jack Teliska, Bruce Bibbins, Jane Merry, Larry Becker, Susan Bowen, Jack Kelley, and Brenda Aswad made up their court. Aching muscles, tired horses, but Camelot and graduation were gained at last! Their ordeal past and their valor proved, the brave companions danced the night away at the Senior Ball.

THRESHOLD

The years have passed by, one by one,
Our youth has fled so fast,
Today we stand at prospect's door,
Shall we forget the past?

Or is it wise to muse about
Those days that now are old,
Or shall we gaze ahead to view
What fate will soon unfold?

Oh, yes, those days were pleasant ones,
Their memories held dear
By us as we go forth to meet
The days that hasten near.

As men and women we shall hold
This nation in our hands,
With courage we shall lead the world,
Its reins fast in our hands.

We'll turn to God when peril nears,
On bended knees we'll pray
That we might strive in blessedness
Until His Judgment Day.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This elective body consists of four members from each of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The president and vice-president are elected by the student body. The duties of the Council include passing ordinances, making known the students' opinions to the administration, presenting recommendations to the student body, and deciding disputes among student organizations. In addition, this year the Council sponsored the CCC drive, the proceeds of which go to six worthy organizations; Bundle Week, and the student-faculty assembly. The Council has also assumed responsibility for the Athletic Awards Dinner.

COLUMBIAN

FELLOW COLUMBIANS:

In September my staff and I set to work on the Columbian. The theme, Fairy Tales, was chosen by a vote of the class, and we started our work of recording the year, 1957, for the students of Columbia.

Nothing could have been accomplished without the able guidance and advice of Miss Barrett, our adviser. In the art department, Mr. Lyons contributed talent, time, and energy, without which, none of our beautiful illustrations would have been possible. Pat Ewasco gave willingly of her time and ability working with me as assistant editor.

With the help of Frumkin Studio and representatives of O'Toole and Sons, Inc., the staff delved into the assignments with enthusiasm and ability and set about the task of writing, preparing, and publishing the Columbian.

It is our fervent hope that we have succeeded in presenting to you, a yearbook previously unexcelled in the history of Columbia.

BAND

Three times a week the music room reverberates with melodies from the invigorating phrases of Sousa to the sonorous intricacies of Bach. The band, under Mr. Morse's direction, entertains at football and basketball games, and marches in parades on the nation's holidays. Columbia's band participates in State Competition and the All-State Music Festival to which, this year, we played hosts. Its biggest moment occurs when, after practicing its sforzandos, polishing its cadenzas, and grappling with its chromatics, the band reveals the fruit of the year's laborious cultivation in that culminating moment, the Spring Concert!

CHORUS

One hundred and thirty strong voices from Columbia High were raised this year at the Christmas program, the Spring Concert, and the State Competition. Voices of outstanding range and purity of tone are always selected to represent us at the Rensselaer County Music Festival and the All-State Festival. Soloists from the chorus also participate in State Competition. Every morning the chorus improves its technique through consistent practice and arduous exercises under the direction of Mr. Geitz. The repertoire resulting from this toil includes all fields from the light tunefulness of "On Top of Old Smoky" to the stately grandeur of "Tannhauser."

STRING QUARTET

STRING QUARTET

This year Columbia's music department, carrying on in the best tradition of Mozart and Haydn, established a string quartet. Unlike Mozart's customary two violins, a viola, and a cello, our string ensemble is entirely composed of violins. It is conducted by Mr. Morse, bandleader and head of the music department. Divided into first, second, third, and fourth violins, the group practices before school one day a week to prepare for Columbia's annual festival, the Spring Concert. The very fact of having a string quartet has a refining and broadening influence upon the school.

TWIRLERS

Gay in their new uniforms, this year five girls took their places at the head of Columbia's band. They paraded on Flag Day and again on Memorial day. Assisted by their adviser, Mr. Morse, our band leader, they nervously prepared themselves to participate in State Competition. The twirlers, as usual gave an example of the art in marching to the band members this spring, and the drum majorette communicated the marching orders to the entire group. Enthusiasm and color were their contributions to Columbia's parades.

SERVICE CLUBS

Mr. Roden is adviser to the Radio Club which is composed of junior-senior high pupils interested in radio and electronics work. They gain experience in handling audio equipment by operating and caring for the school and auditorium amplifying systems, tape recorders, record players, and radios.

Also under Mr. Roden's guidance is the Stage Crew. They draw the curtains, adjust the lights, set the stage, and are always on hand to drive a nail or raise a backdrop for the worried producer of an assembly.

Mrs. Coumbe's Store Staff includes four members. They check invoices, sell articles, and perform all the duties which are necessarily entailed when a school attains the luxury of a store. Their efficient and courteous attention, in common with that of all the service clubs, are as much to be relied upon as the unobtrusive strength of Columbia's brick walls.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

This club offers opportunities to those interested in practical experience in the field of photography. Members of the club may bring in their own work to be done in the darkroom. Mr. Corr, the club's adviser, and members of the club take pictures of student activities. These are sold to the student body and the money is used to finance the projects of the club.

PALLETEERS

Probably the most exclusive and specialized club in Columbia is a group called the Palleteers: membership is strictly by invitation. This year, as every year, the first and most important job of the Palleteers is doing all art work for the yearbook. This having been accomplished, the club spent the remainder of the year planning a mural for our cafeteria wall which will be started sometime next year.

LIBRARY CLUB

Members of the Library Club serve the school by mending, shelving, and pasting books, waiting upon patrons, and relieving librarians of other routine tasks. Participation in this service organization's work gives the members practical experience and an appreciation of literature. At the final assembly in June, the members are awarded pins on the basis of their years of service. Mrs. Hollister is the adviser to the Library Club.

CROSSROADS GEM

The purpose of this, the official news organ of Columbia High, is to recount student activities and to record and form student opinion through polls and editorials. This year, with the help of Mr. Chipp, the adviser, the newspaper was revised. Full-sized headlines and an advice column, Keep Informed With Miss Informed, were two innovations. The Crossroads Gem continues to serve Columbia as its most important source of accurate information.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

Girls who take homemaking in grades nine through twelve are eligible for membership. Members of F.H.A. under the guidance of Mrs. Pascal, strive to become more proficient homemakers. They serve at school banquets to earn money for the club. This year they had a Chinese Auction as another money-raising activity. Each year they hold a Christmas Party to entertain the children at Child's Hospital.

MAKE-UP SQUAD

A very important part of the Dramatics Club is the Make-Up Squad. Training classes are held each year for tenth and eleventh grade girls and the best make-up artists are selected to serve on the squad. They are chosen by the members of the squad and the adviser, Miss Tracy. These girls do the make-up for all the dramatic productions of the school.

The house lights go up and a murmur of comment is heard as people don their coats and straggle into the aisle after witnessing the final result of months of planning and practice, the Spring Play. This year it was "Night Must Fall," a mystery, by Emylen Williams. Over one hundred people contributed their thoughts and skill in one of the areas a Dramatic Club member may choose: properties, programs, ushers, scenery, tickets, publicity, make-up, stage, costumes, prompters, or cast. Each fall the Senior Class presents the Senior Play under the direction of Miss Tracy. This year the play was a comedy, "Harvey," starring Linda Glander, Jim Gregory and many others. Every alternate year the Dramatics Club presents a Christmas pageant also. This year it was "A Festival of Lights." The Dramatics Club performs a valuable service, giving teenagers an opportunity to search out their latent creative talents.

I. R. C.

The ultimate aim of the I.R.C. is to interest and educate students of the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades in foreign affairs through discussion, study, and group activities. This year, under Mr. Havey's guidance, each member completed a project on a foreign country; two assemblies, one upon the Presidential Campaign, were sponsored, and a portrait of Woodrow Wilson was presented to Columbia. The I.R.C. also took an inspiring and thought provoking tour through the U.N. Building in New York City, and thereby gained new understanding of the reality of the world's problems.

SENIOR FORENSIC SOCIETY

Skilled in rebuttal, constructive debating, and cross-questioning, this organization took part in the State Finals and Semi-Finals this year. The group joined the National Forensic League, and two of its members, Jack Conway and Pat Riley, earned Degrees of Honor from that source. Under the guidance of Mr. Hotchkiss, the twenty members practice thinking on their feet besides exercising clear and exact modes of expression.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The Crow-Ho-Sea Chapter of the F.T.A. is composed of girls interested in teaching from ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. Its senior members have the opportunity of practice teaching under faculty supervision in one of the elementary schools. The others may visit and observe in these schools. Talks by teachers and films are also included in the year's program. The society is sponsored by the East Greenbush Teachers' Association.

VARSITY CLUB

All students who have earned a letter are eligible for membership in Varsity Club. Varsity Club members may buy a jacket for which they pay half, the club paying the remainder. Members have charge of selling soda and ushering at home basketball games. This year during football season, members sold blue football balloons with "COLUMBIA" in white letters. The largest source of yearly income is an annual dance presented in the spring.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The members of Columbia's Les Savants Chapter of the National Honor Society are chosen from the junior and senior classes for their achievement in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Their election by representatives from the faculty, administration, and Honor Society members is solemnly revealed before an expectant auditorium in February's Honor Society Assembly. Later their parents present keys to the new members at the Honor Society Tea. Every year, the Honor Society sponsors a white elephant sale and a dance. Each individual remembers his promise to work diligently for the school's welfare and tries to reward Columbia's gifts to him by returning them, two-fold, to the giver.

The suspense is over.

A new member for our chapter.

JUNIOR HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL

Columbia's Junior High School Council is composed of elected representatives from each junior high homeroom. This group, under the direction of the officers and Miss Martin, attends to matters affecting student activities and channels ideas from the student body to the administration. Dances and parties after school from 3 to 5 p.m. furnish a source of income for the council with which they sponsor the junior high newspaper, "The Teen-Age Times."

These two publications constitute the literary efforts of the junior high school. "The Teen-Age Times," published every other month, is the official newspaper for grades 7-9 and contains news pertinent to the junior high school. Miss Novak is the adviser. The Junior High Literary Club publishes a literary magazine, "The Literary Club Review," twice a year, under the direction of Miss Doherty and Mrs. Lyon. This magazine contains editorials, short stories, essays, poetry, book reviews, and other articles written exclusively by junior high students.

JUNIOR HIGH MUSIC

The Junior High Band and Chorus are composed of talented and interested students in grades seven, eight, and nine. These two organizations contribute a great deal to the cultural development of the junior high students.

Under the direction of Mr. Jary the 70 member Junior High Band has been split into two sections for the second semester. The first group, composed of 41 selected members, formed a correctly balanced instrumental band which performed in music competition at Hudson and in the Spring Concert. The other group received more individual attention which enabled the members to advance more rapidly than if they had been part of the heterogeneous group. As these members improve, they are transferred into the selected group. The band plays for junior high assemblies and junior high plays.

The Junior High Chorus, under the direction of Miss Alberti, rendered a selection of five numbers at Columbia's Christmas assembly. The 90 members assisted the Senior High Chorus in providing the musical background for the Christmas Pageant. The chorus also sang five numbers at the Spring Concert. These included: "It's A Grand Night For Singing," "Joshua Fit At De Battle Of Jericho," "One World," "Into The Night," and "Battle Hymn Of The Republic."

Both the Junior High Band and Chorus provide excellent experience and training for further participation in senior high music organizations.

The Junior Red Cross with its adviser, Miss Stapleton, actually functions as part of the National Red Cross chapter by performing such services as collecting money and other necessary items which they donate to needy groups. The members make party favors which are sent on special occasions to the veterans at the Veterans' Hospital in Albany.

The Junior High F.H.A. teaches interested girls the basic principles of good homemaking. This year the girls planned a fashion show to illustrate appropriate clothes for various occasions, under the guidance of Mrs. Pascale.

The Junior High Dramatics Club, under the direction of Mrs. Gavryck, presents two plays, both in assemblies, each year. Students interested in any phase of dramatics, acting, sets, costumes, publicity, or props, will find a committee to suit their capabilities.

This year, this 108 member organization, presented the play, "Marty's Money Matters," written by Mrs. Gavryck. The cast included: George Kanuck, Karen Weatherwax, Jack Radcliffe, Lorraine Carpenter, Pat Fitzgerald, and Henry Lanford.

The second play, "They Put on a Play," was presented in March. The cast included: Bill Bookheim, Douglas LaBier, Allen Fasoldt, Ken Bowman, Nancy Bruins, Sue Halsey, Sandra Ainslie, Pat Krug, and Carol Balfe.

The club also presented two movie nights during which they showed full length movies and charged admission. The money was used to buy makeup, sound effects, records, and other equipment needed.

The Junior High Makeup Squad has contributed greatly to the successful productions of the Junior High Dramatics Club. Members are selected by a committee of squad members and the club's adviser, Mrs. Gavryck.

Columbia's future in football seemed bleak on September 1st. When the boys came out for the first day of practise, only three of the previous season's first string were present. Between that first day and our opening game with B.C.H.S. Coach Budnowski manufactured a miracle. Out of nowhere came a "Blue Devil Frank Merriwell" under the alias of Chubby Seeberger. The rest of our backfield stood out with Leon VanAlstine, Jack Teliska, and Larry Becker. In order to win games, a team must have a good line as well as a good backfield. The line proved to very solid and contributed a great deal to the defeat of many opponents.

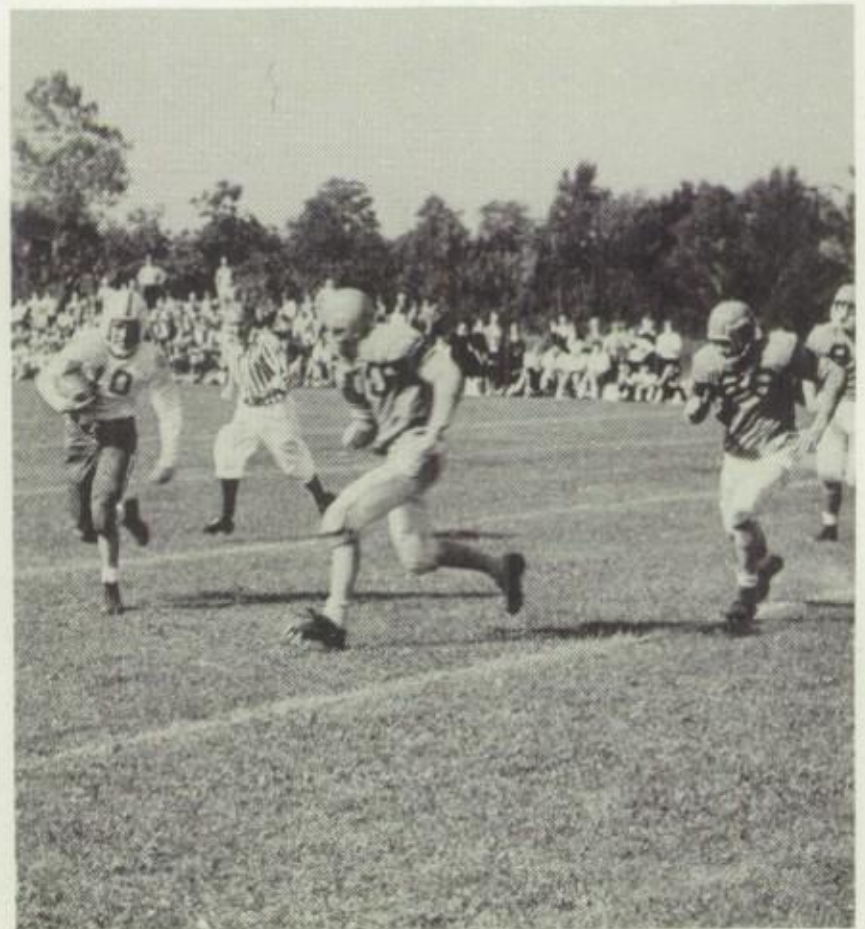

COLUMBIA
CHAMPIONSHIP

Our Blue Devils opened the season by playing to a 12-12 tie with B.C.H.S. Our next contest was a league contest with Cohoes. Sparked by the excellent line and Chubby Seeberger's three touchdowns, Columbia won 24-6. Our next opponent was Colonie. We won this game 13-0. In this contest Don Covell scored the extra point with a placement kick. This was the first time in Columbia's history that an extra point has been scored by placekicking. Our fourth game was our annual rugged battle with Hudson. This contest ended in the second tie of the season. Hudson came from behind to tie the game at 19-19. On October 19th, we played an afternoon contest with Cathedral. This game was our only loss of the season, and the opponents won 14-6. This was a stimulant for the next game with Watervliet. We beat Watervliet by a score of 26-0. Our final contest was with Lansingburgh. This game was to decide the league championship. Columbia won this exciting game, 7-6, and by holding the opponent on the goal line at the end of the fourth quarter. The team had a very successful season and ended with four wins, two ties, and one loss.

The varsity basketball team, under the direction of Coach Lynch, had an irregular season. After losing seven out of the first eight games, the team came back to win seven out of the last eight. The squad ended the season in a second place tie in the Capital District League with a record of six wins and four losses.

The team was led by co-captains Paul Jordan and Larry Becker, who averaged over 15 points a game. The other members of the first string, who contributed a great deal to the success of the team, were Jack Kelley, Jack Teliska, Locky DeWitt, and Bernie Cardella. Don Covell, Bob Conlee, Bruce Bibbins, Ray Draper, Ray Hassett, and Chubby Seeberger also helped the team a great deal when they were needed. Managers, Bill Sarr and Bruce Boyle, were also a great help to the team throughout the season.

The highlight of the basketball season was the second game with B.C.H.S. We won this contest 49-46, breaking the opponent's fourteen game winning streak. The team also beat Shenendehowa and Milne twice, split with Maple Hill, Rensselaer, and Guilderland, and dropped two to Hudson and Albany Academy.

The 1956 tennis team was one of the most successful in Columbia's history. Under the able assistance of Mr. Rees, the team broke even. The boys won four matches and lost four. The team was led by Ed Draiss, who played first position and Pete Younghans, who played second. The Coach anticipates an even better team in 1957 because only one member of the squad is graduating.

The 1956 track season was a very successful one for Columbia High. Under the direction of Coach Budnowski, our team won three dual meets while losing only one. The team scored victories against LaSalle, Schuyler, and Albany Academy. The team was defeated by Lansingburgh. We also took first place in the Triangular Meet at Hudson where they beat B.C.H.S. and Hudson.

Columbia's track team placed third in the Eastern

Scholastic Conference, fourth in the City of Albany Championships, fourth in the State Sectionals, and fifth in the Schenectady Invitational Meet.

Many school records were broken during the 1956 track season. Howie Maat broke the 880 record with a time of 21:03. Kent Fitzgerald ran the mile in 4:53:1. Bill Hoffman broke the pole vault record with a record of 10'9".

Attendance at hockey intramurals proves hockey is becoming one of Columbia's most popular girls' sports. Girls are chosen for teams according to certain qualifications, namely: skill, endurance, and regular attendance at intramurals, which are usually held once a week. As is generally true, Columbia's girls' hockey teams, both Varsity and Jayvee, saw many victories and few losses. In a hectic afternoon game the Varsity defeated their top competitor, Lansingburg 2-0. Other games included St. Agnes, 0-0, Oneida, 0-1, and B.C.H.S., 0-2.

As seen through the eyes of Freshman hockey players, this game appears to be an entirely different sport from any other they have previously attempted. As these girls acquire the knack and skill, which make a stolid hockey player, undoubtedly, they will review the memories of their first bruise caused by another's hockey stick. Although hockey is new to these girls, they are doing quite well and through their added efforts will inevitably improve to be ranked as one of Columbia's top hockey teams.

The Girls' Varsity basketball team completed their season with a fine record of nine games won and two lost. The team's leading scorers were: Carol Buckley, Maureen Flynn, and Carol Goldup. The team is to be congratulated for their all-out effort and fine display of sportsmanship.

Success once more came to the Girls' Varsity and Freshman softball teams as their season ended with only one loss for each team. Both teams participated in one playday, which was held at Columbia, and won all games played. The Varsity team's only defeat came at the hands of Hudson, while the Freshman lost a game to Oneida.

Due to the lack of competitive experience, the Girls' tennis team was unable to establish a team victory. Pat Ewasco, who held down the No. 1 position on the team, played diligently but was unable to score a victory over Hudson, our chief competitor, in this particular sport.

As more and more people become interested in archery, and develop the special techniques required of a good archer, more honors are accumulated. One such honor was earned by Frances Drescher, who placed third in an archery meet at Lansingburgh.

Girls... see us for a good job now!

Want a good job after graduation? We have a variety of interesting positions to choose from. One is bound to suit you to a "T." Starting salaries are good — with increases at frequent intervals. There's plenty of opportunity for you to advance to even better, more responsible positions, too. You work with girls just like yourself—friendly girls with similar backgrounds and interests. And you'll find working conditions very pleasant.

There's no need to wait until after graduation to apply. If you're a senior, we want to talk to you now! Come in and see us at:
